

LASALLE COLLEGE VANCOUVER LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

LaSalle College Vancouver and LaSalle College Vancouver High School are interested in identifying and rewarding applicants who have demonstrated leadership skills and bring these to our campus. Leadership can come in different form (through civic engagement, community service, global citizenship initiatives, social influencing, etc.) but it is driven by a commitment and passion to serve and impact people and processes. Please detail your leadership work, why you engage in this work, the communities served, and the impacts you have seen. We are offering scholarships worth up to 20% of the annual, full-time tuition to new students in our diploma, degree and high school programs.

* E-Learning Diplomas and the Associate of Arts degree are not eligible for scholarships.

ELIGIBILITY

- Open to any new domestic or international student, or graduated LCV alumni; current LCV students who are transferring from a diploma to a degree program may also be considered.
- Recipients of the Associate of Arts bursary are not eligible for any other bursaries, scholarships or awards.
- Students must have an active admissions application – international applicants must have received a Letter of Offer and domestic students must have full or conditional acceptance.
- Students must submit a completed application prior to the submission deadline as outlined under the “Steps to Apply” section below.

STEPS TO APPLY

The following items are required for a complete scholarship application:

- 1) A short video (2 minutes) showcasing leadership engagement. Be sure to specify the event details along with team name (if applicable) and/or self-identifying descriptors.
- 2) A recommendation letter from an advisor/mentor/coach/instructor or other leadership representative who is well acquainted with the the applicant’s level of engagement and influence as a leader. The letter should include significant detail about the applicant’s achievements, and be on official letterhead (or explain in detail the writer’s relationship to the applicant), and must be authenticated with a signature and up-to-date contact details.
- 3) A minimum 250-word personal narrative statement discussing your contribution, noteworthy accomplishments, and future aspirations. You should also explain how you intend to maintain involvement and carry forward your commitment and passion to serve the LCV/LCV High School community while studying here.
- 4) Completed & Signed Application Form.
- 5) Submission Deadline instructions: In order to be considered, your completed scholarship application package must be submitted no later than two weeks prior to your program start date to: scholarships@lasallegevanancouver.com.
